SECTION 1 - INTRODUCTION

1. ENABLING LEGISLATION & ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Order in Council Number 198 (OIC 198) was signed by the Lieutenant Governor on April 15, 2019. Under the authority of the Budget Transparency and Accountability Act, OIC 198 amended the Government Reporting Entity Regulation to add FESBC to the list government reporting entities.

The Ministry of FLNRORD may develop Orders in Council to apply additional Government legislation as required (e.g. the Financial Administration Act, the Financial Information Act, the Budget Transparency and Accountability Act, the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, etc.). Also, specific enabling legislation to align delegated powers and authorities to the Government Reporting Entity mandate may be developed by the Ministry of FLNRORD in consultation with the Crown Agencies Secretariat, the Office of the Comptroller General, Treasury Board Staff, the Ministry of Attorney General, and Cabinet Operations, for approval by the Legislation Review Committee of Cabinet.

In addition to being a Government Reporting Entity, FESBC is incorporated as a society and needs to maintain compliance with the Societies Act by filing annual reports and updating any changes to society information such as:

- Change of directors;
- Change of society's address;
- Change in bylaws;
- Change of the constitution (name or purposes);
- Amalgamation of societies;
- Dissolution of the society; or
- Restoration of the society.

Public sector organizations, like private sector companies, are independent legal entities governed by boards of directors. The duties of public sector boards are similar in many ways to their private sector counterparts, but there are significant differences in the legal, regulatory and operational environments that shape the responsibilities and expectations facing public sector directors. Public sector boards must take these differences into account when constructing their governance regimes and it is particularly important for them to understand both the context in which public sector organizations are created and the Government's ongoing role in their governance.

Government establishes public sector organizations to serve the public interest and to advance overall public policy objectives. Each organization is given a specific mandate, which is communicated either through governing legislation, its constituting documents or, where applicable, by Government policy.

Government performs cyclical reviews of each organization’s mandate to ensure that it continues to be relevant and that the service delivery model continues to represent value to taxpayers. Boards may be asked to participate in the review or provide input on specific mandate issues, but decisions regarding a public-sector organization’s overall mandate always remain within the purview of Government.

Where appropriate, Government may give a public-sector organization a specific direction on a particular matter. This type of direction is usually made only after discussion with the organization.

While it is the case that public sector organizations are provided greater autonomy and flexibility in decision-making than Government ministries, their boards must nevertheless be alert to the Government’s broad public policy objectives. They must also ensure that their organization’s strategic initiatives are aligned with the mandate set by Government.

This “Board of Directors Manual” (the “Board Manual”) has been prepared for the Directors of the Forest Enhancement Society of British Columbia (“FESBC” or the “Society”).

The Board Manual sets out the governance structure and non-financial policies pursuant to which the Board exercises its duty to: “manage or supervise the management of the activities and internal affairs of the Society.”

To ensure FESBC adheres to its mandate, the Board Manual incorporates the Board’s responsibilities as set out in the legal framework and reflects today’s best governance practices.

The Board Manual is divided into the following sections:

Introduction summarizes the framework governing FESBC and provides common definitions of terms used throughout the manual.

Roles and Responsibilities sets out the responsibilities of the Board and the Board vis-à-vis the provincial government, Board Chair, individual Directors, the Executive Director (“ED”), the Corporate Secretary (Governance Chair), the Treasurer (Finance Chair) and the operating guidelines and terms of reference for Board Committees.

Board Organizational Oversight sets out the processes used by the Board for overseeing the performance of the Society as a whole, including: strategic planning, risk management oversight, and ED evaluation and succession planning.

Effective Board Functioning sets out policies that guide the Board in its functioning, including; Board Meeting Guidelines, Orientation and Professional Development, Evaluation, Skills Matrix, Succession Planning, and Director and Officer indemnity liability insurance.

Code of Conduct and Conflict of Interest Guidelines contain the policy guidelines.

Acknowledgment and Declaration for Directors – Annual Signatory Form - each Director is provided with a copy of the Board Manual and are asked to annually sign and return the Acknowledgment and Declaration Form to the ED to acknowledge the receipt and understanding of the Manual’s contents including the Code of Conduct and Conflict of Interest

Guidelines. ADM's may also wish to read the 'General Conduct Principles for Public Appointees' found on the BC Government website: Link to Crown Agencies & Board Resourcing Office

Appendix - this section includes the Constitution and Bylaws of FESBC.

NOTE: The latest version of the FESBC Mandate Letter may be referenced on the FESBC website, www.fesbc.ca.

2. GOVERNANCE FRAMEWORK

2.1 Overview

The Board of Directors plays a central role in the leadership of any organization. While the Board may hire management to conduct day-to-day operations, the Board is ultimately responsible to ensure the organization is successful and achieves its mandate. Under the BC Societies Act, the Directors must “manage, or supervise the management of, the activities and internal affairs of the society.” In carrying out their responsibilities, Directors must adhere to two legal duties: the first, commonly known as the fiduciary duty, requires Directors to act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the society. In the context of a government-mandated society, there is a need to balance achievement of the mandate with a consideration of other key stakeholders. The second duty is called the duty of care, which requires Directors to exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent investor would exercise in making investments in light of the purposes and distribution requirements of FESBC. A sound governance scheme ensures that Directors are able to meet the standards required under the duty of care.

The Board delegates the day-to-day operational responsibilities of the FESBC to the ED. Directors serve part time and the Board's role is one of governance and oversight of FESBC which they must meet and fulfill through due diligence.

The Board's overall governance role involves a wide range of responsibilities, including approving FESBC's multi-year Strategic and Service Plans and reviewing them annually, annual operating plans and budgets, monitoring FESBC's performance, ensuring management is qualified, reviewing FESBC's material risks and overseeing a succession planning process to ensure continued leadership.

The Board is committed to conducting business in a legal and ethical manner.

2.2 Background

The Constitution of FESBC sets out that its purposes are:

- a) To advance the environment and resource stewardship of British Columbia's forests by:
  - i. Preventing and mitigating the impact of wildfires;
  - ii. Improving damaged or low value forests;

- iii. Improving habitat for wildlife;
  - iv. Supporting the use of fibre from damaged and low value forests; and
  - v. Treating forests to improve the management of greenhouse gases.
- b) To advocate for the environmental and resource stewardship of British Columbia’s forests; and
- c) To do all such other things as are incidental and ancillary to the attainment of the foregoing purposes and the exercise of the powers of the Society.

The Ministry Transmittal Letters and BC Government Mandate Letters establish the conditions of the initial and subsequent grants provided to the Society by the BC Government as well as the mandate laying out the principles expected in meeting the commitments outlined. The Mandate Letters establish the expectations of FESBC as a Government Reporting Entity with the primary accountability to the Government.

The administration and operations of the FESBC are to be consistent with the spirit and intent of good governance practices in the broader public sector of British Columbia, particularly with regards to transparency and accountability towards all stakeholders.

CABRO also provides oversight of Crown governance and corporate accountability, including overseeing the delivery of mandate letters, service plans and annual service plan reports for ABCs. CABRO staff establish best practices and provide advice and recommendations for improvements to governance, accountability and performance planning by public sector organizations.

19. INDIVIDUAL DIRECTOR POSITION DESCRIPTION

19.1 Introduction

The Board has developed this position description for Directors to set out how the Board expects members to go about discharging their duties and responsibilities as Directors of FESBC. This position description will be used in assessing the performance of Directors. The role and responsibilities of the Board as a whole are set out in Section 1 of this manual.

19.2 Standards of Conduct

In discharging his or her responsibilities, each Director will:

- a) Act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of FESBC; and
- b) Exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

Directors of public sector organizations are expected to demonstrate high standards of personal and professional conduct to maintain public confidence in their actions and their organizations. These standards include the need to avoid real or perceived conflicts of interest.

In January 2005, the Board Resourcing Office (now CABRO) published The Standards of Ethical Conduct for Public Sector Organizations, which outlines ethical conduct principles for directors. FESBC has developed a code of conduct and ethics that fits its own mandate and institutional culture while complying at the same time with the minimum standards established by the Board Resourcing Office.

In keeping with these responsibilities, a Director is required to:

- a) Comply with the BC Societies Act, regulations made under the Act, the Bylaws and Constitution of FESBC;
- b) Comply with Board policies, including the Code of Conduct and Conflict of Interest Guidelines (Section 5);
- c) Make full and timely disclosure of any actual, potential or apparent conflicts of interest in accordance with procedures set out in the Board's Code of Conduct and Conflict of Interest Guidelines in order to protect the integrity of FESBC; and

- d) Keep confidential information confidential, including all information associated with in-camera meetings.

19.3 Relationship with Management

Each Director shall be available as a resource to the ED.

Directors will direct questions or concerns on the performance of management through Board and Committee meetings or through the Chair to the ED.

19.4 Public Statements

The ED is the primary spokesperson for FESBC and the Board Chair is the primary spokesperson for the Board.

The Board speaks with one voice; although each Director has an important role as an ambassador of FESBC, no Director should speak on behalf of FESBC (e.g., to government or the media) in his or her capacity as an individual Director.

19.5 Community Engagement

Directors are expected to engage with FESBC's Stakeholders and to act in accordance with FESBC's Communications Policy.

Directors will participate in, and act as official representatives of FESBC at, certain events organized by the Board or FESBC (such as Board-hosted receptions and industry events).

32. BOARD SKILLS MATRIX AND SUCCESSION PLANNING

32.1 Introduction

The most important factor contributing to Board effectiveness is having Directors with the right combination of skills and experience. It is the Board’s responsibility to ensure, as much as possible, that Directors have the required competencies to effectively carry out their roles and responsibilities and that there is a planned process to ensure orderly succession of Directors.

32.2 Board Skills and Experience

Overall, Directors should have the skills and experience to effectively monitor the performance of FESBC and add value and provide support for management in establishing strategy and reviewing risks and opportunities.

The recruitment profile for Directors should be a combination of many factors: personal attributes and traits; specific skills and experience; community standing and experience; and the diversity of viewpoints that are brought to the table.

Outlined below are the recommended personal characteristics and specific competencies that are viewed as being required for the Board.

32.3 Recommended Personal Characteristics

Directors should possess the following personal characteristics:

- a) Integrity and accountability;
- b) Demonstrated high ethical standards and integrity in their personal and professional dealings, and willing to act on, and remain accountable for, their boardroom decisions;

- d) Ability to provide wise, thoughtful counsel on a broad range of issues;
- e) Financial literacy;
- f) Familiarity with processes for evaluating FESBC’s performance;
- g) Mature confidence;

- i) Respect for others;
- j) High performance standards;
- k) History of achievements that reflect high standards for themselves and others;
- l) No real, perceived or potential conflicts of interest; and
- m) Ability to achieve a consensus.

32.4 Board Matrix – Director Skills and Experience

Given the Board’s strategic plan and priorities and the associated challenges and opportunities, the Board should collectively possess the following desired skills and experience, with each Director contributing individually to the Board Matrix through varying combinations of the following domains:

- a) Previous Board experience;
- b) Government natural resource management programs;
- c) Forest industry leadership;
- d) Understanding of technical issues related to FESBC;
- e) Understanding of FESBC’s stakeholders;
- f) First Nations relations;
- g) Strategic planning;
- h) Risk management;
- i) Finance and internal controls; and
- j) Audit experience.

The required competencies are expected to change over time in relation to FESBC’s evolving strategic priorities and actions. The Board Matrix should be reviewed and updated annually.

32.5 Stewardship Leader Director Recruitment

In order to provide guidance on the skills and experience required in new Stewardship Leader Director candidates, the Board will:

- a) Consider the optimal Board composition as set out in the Board skills and experience matrix;
- b) Consider the skills, background and experience of existing (and continuing) Directors; and
- c) Identify any gaps (e.g., those qualifications which should be added and/or strengthened on the Board).

The Board will seek to fill vacancies with individuals possessing those skills and experience that are identified as gaps.

32.6 Background Information Made Available to Director Candidates

The Board makes available to all potential Director candidates copies of the Board Manual, the FESBC Service and Strategic Plans and the Society Incorporation documents.

32.7 Governance Committee

The Governance Committee Chair guides the work of the Board on Board composition and succession.

33. DIRECTOR AND OFFICER INDEMNITY LIABILITY INSURANCE

33.1 Indemnity

Subject to certain limitations, Directors and Officers will be indemnified by FESBC in accordance with Bylaw 11 against personal liability resulting from their acts or omissions as a Director and Officer, provided they acted honestly in good faith in the best interests of FESBC.

33.2 Director and Officer Insurance

FESBC will purchase Director and Officer Liability Insurance to cover potential personal liability in an amount sufficient and appropriate for FESBC (Bylaw 11.2).

SECTION 5 – CODE OF CONDUCT AND CONFLICT OF INTEREST GUIDELINES

34. STANDARDS OF ETHICAL CONDUCT FOR DIRECTORS OF THE FESBC

The fundamental relationship between a Director and the organization on which the Director serves should be one of trust; essential to trust is a commitment to honesty and integrity. Ethical conduct within this relationship imposes certain obligations.

The purpose of these Guidelines is to set out minimum standards of ethical conduct expected of all FESBC Directors.

34.1 Compliance with the Law

- a) Directors should act at all times in full compliance with all applicable laws.
- b) In his/her relationship with the organization, no Director should commit or condone an unethical or illegal act or instruct another Director, employee, or supplier to do so.
- c) Directors are expected to be sufficiently familiar with any legislation that applies to their work to recognize potential liabilities and to know when to seek legal advice. If in doubt, directors are expected to ask for clarification.
- d) Falsifying any record of transactions is unacceptable.
- e) Directors should not only comply fully with the law but should also avoid any situation which could be perceived as improper or indicate a casual attitude towards compliance.

34.2 Responsibilities of Directors

- a) Directors will regularly attend meetings and adequately prepare for the other duties associated with operation of the Society.
- b) The conduct and language of Directors will be free from any discrimination or harassment prohibited by the Human Rights Code.
- c) The conduct of Directors will reflect a high standard of courtesy and respect.
- d) Act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of FESBC.

34.3 Conflicts of Interest

- a) In general, a conflict of interest exists for Directors who use or have the opportunity to use their position at the organization to benefit themselves, friends or families.
- b) A Director should not use his or her position within the organization to pursue or advance the Director's personal interests, the interests of a related person<sup>1</sup>, the Director's business associate, corporation, union or partnership, or the interests of a person to whom the Director owes an obligation.
- c) A Director should not directly or indirectly benefit from a transaction with the organization over which a Director can influence decisions made by the organization.
- d) A Director should not take personal advantage of an opportunity available to the organization unless the organization has clearly and irrevocably decided against pursuing the opportunity, and the opportunity is also available to the public.

- e) A Director should not use his or her position with the organization to solicit clients for the Director's business, or a business operated by a close friend, family, business associate, corporation, union or partnership of the Director, or a person to whom the Director owes an obligation.
- f) Every Director should avoid any situation in which there is, or may appear to be, potential conflict<sup>2</sup> which could appear<sup>3</sup> to interfere with the Director's judgment in making decisions in the organization's best interest.
- g) There are several situations that could give rise to a conflict of interest. The most common are accepting gifts, favours or kickbacks from suppliers, close or family relationships with outside suppliers, passing confidential information to competitors or other interested parties or using privileged information inappropriately. The following are examples of the types of conduct and situations that can lead to a conflict of interest:
  - i. Influencing the organization to lease equipment from a business owned by the Director's spouse;
  - ii. Influencing the organization to allocate funds to an institution where the Director or his or her relative works or is involved;
  - iii. Participating in a decision by the organization to hire or promote a relative of the Director;
  - iv. Influencing the organization to make all its travel arrangements through a travel agency owned by a relative of the Director;
  - v. Influencing or participating in a decision of the organization that will directly or indirectly result in the Director's own financial gain; and
  - vi. A Director should fully disclose all circumstances that could conceivably be construed as a conflict of interest.

34.4 Disclosure

- a) Full disclosure enables Directors to resolve unclear situations and gives an opportunity to dispose of conflicting interests before any difficulty can arise.
- b) A Director should, immediately upon becoming aware of a potential conflict of interest situation, disclose the conflict (preferably in writing) to the Board Chair. This requirement exists even if the Director does not become aware of the conflict until after a transaction is complete.

<sup>2</sup> "conflict" means a conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest

<sup>3</sup> "apparent" conflict of interest means any situation where it would appear to a reasonable person that the director is in a conflict of interest situation.

- c) If a Director is in doubt whether a situation involves a conflict, the director should immediately seek the advice of the Board Chair. If appropriate, the board may wish to seek advice from the organization’s ethics advisor or legal advice.
- d) Unless a Director is otherwise directed, a Director should immediately take steps to resolve the conflict or remove the suspicion that it exists.
- e) If a Director is concerned that another director is in a conflict of interest situation, the Director should immediately bring his or her concern to the other Director's attention and request that the conflict be declared. If the other Director refuses to declare the conflict, the Director should immediately bring his or her concern to the attention of the board chair. If there is a concern with the Board Chair, the issue should be referred to the Governance Committee Chair.
- f) A Director should disclose the nature and extent of any conflict at the first meeting of the board after which the facts leading to the conflict have come to that director's attention. After disclosing the conflict, the Director:
  - i. Should not take part in the discussion of the matter or vote on any questions in respect of the matter (although the Director may be counted in the quorum present at the board meeting);
  - ii. If the meeting is open to the public, may remain in the room, but shall not take part in that portion of the meeting during which the matter giving rise to the conflict is under discussion, and shall leave the room prior to any vote on the matter giving rise to the conflict;
  - iii. Should, if the meeting is not open to the public, immediately leave the meeting and not return until all discussion and voting with respect to the matter giving rise to the conflict is completed; and
  - iv. Should not attempt, in any way or at any time, to influence the discussion or the voting of the Board on any question relating to the matter giving rise to the conflict.

34.5 Outside Business Interests

- a) Directors should declare possible conflicting outside business activities at the time of appointment. Notwithstanding any outside activities, Directors are required to act in the best interest of the organization.
- b) No Director should hold a significant financial interest, either directly or through a relative or associate, or hold or accept a position as an officer or Director in an organization in a material relationship with the organization, where by virtue of his or her position in the organization, the Director could in any way benefit the other organization by influencing the purchasing, selling or other decisions of the organization, unless that interest has been fully disclosed in writing to the organization.
- c) A “significant financial interest” in this context is any interest substantial enough that decisions of the organization could result in a personal gain for the Director.

- d) These restrictions apply equally to interests in companies that may compete with the organization in all of its areas of activity.
- e) Directors who have been selected to the Board because they are a representative of a stakeholder group or region owe the same duties and loyalty to the organization and when their duties conflict with the wishes of the stakeholder or constituent, their primary duty remains to act in the best interests of the organization.

34.6 Confidential Information

- a) Confidential information includes proprietary technical, business, financial, legal, or any other information which the organization treats as confidential.
- b) Directors should not, either during or following the termination of an appointment, disclose such information to any outside person unless authorized.
- c) Similarly, Directors should never disclose or use confidential information gained by virtue of their association with the organization for personal gain, or to benefit friends, relatives or associates.
- d) If in doubt about what is considered confidential, a Director should seek guidance from the Board Chair or the ED.

34.7 Investment Activity

Directors should not, either directly or through relatives or associates, acquire or dispose of any interest, including publicly traded shares, in any company while having undisclosed confidential information obtained in the course of work at the FESBC which could reasonably affect the value of such securities.

34.8 Outside Employment or Association

A Director who accepts a position with any organization that could lead to a conflict of interest or situation prejudicial to the FESBC's interests, should discuss the implications of accepting such a position with the Board Chair recognizing that acceptance of such a position might require the Director's resignation from the Board.

34.9 Entertainment, Gifts and Favours

- a) It is essential to fair business practices that all those who associate with the FESBC as suppliers, contractors or Directors, have access to the organization on equal terms.
- b) Directors and members of their immediate families should not accept entertainment, gifts or favours that create or appear to create a favoured position for doing business with the organization. Any firm offering such inducement should be asked to cease.
- c) Similarly, no Director should offer or solicit gifts or favours in order to secure preferential treatment for themselves or the organization.
- d) Under no circumstances should Directors offer or receive cash, preferred loans, securities, or secret commissions in exchange for preferential treatment. Any Director experiencing or witnessing such an offer should report the incident to the Board Chair immediately.

- e) Gifts and entertainment should only be accepted or offered by a Director in the normal exchanges common to established business relationships for the organization. An exchange of such gifts should create no sense of obligation on the part of the Director.
- f) Inappropriate gifts received by a Director should be returned to the donor.
- g) Full and immediate disclosure to the Board Chair of borderline cases will always be taken as good-faith compliance with these standards.

34.10 Use of FESBC's Property

A Director requires FESBC's approval to use property owned by the organization for personal purposes, or to purchase property from the organization unless the purchase is made through the usual channels also available to the public.

34.11 Responsibility

- a) FESBC should behave, and be perceived, as an ethical organization.
- b) Each Director should adhere to the minimum standards described herein and to the standards set out in all applicable policies, guidelines and legislation.
- c) Integrity, honesty, and trust are essential elements of FESBC's success. Any Director who knows or suspects a breach of FESBC's Code of Conduct and Conflict of Interest Guidelines has a responsibility to report it to the Board Chair.
- d) To demonstrate determination and commitment, each Director is asked to review and declare in writing their compliance with the FESBC's Code of Conduct and Conflict of Interest Guidelines annually.

34.12 Breach

A Director found to have breached his/her duty by violating the minimum standards set out in this document may be liable to censure or a recommendation for dismissal by the Board.

34.13 Where to Seek Clarification

The Board Chair or the Governance Committee Chair are responsible to provide guidance on any item concerning standards of ethical behaviour.
